BRETHREN, and if a man be pre-occupied in any fault, you that are spiritual, instruct such an one in the spirit of lenitie, considering thine owne self, lest thou also be tempted. ² Bearc ye one anothers burdens: and so you shal fulfil the law of Christ. ³ For if any man esteeme him self to be something, vvhreas he is nothing, he seduceth him self. ⁴ But let euery one proue his owne worke, and so in him self only shal he haue the glorie, and not in an other. ⁵ For euery one shal beare his owne burden. ⁶ And let him that is catechized in the vword, communicate to him that catechizeth him, in all his

as thy selfe. ¹⁵ But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another. ¹⁶ This I say then, Walke in the spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot doe the thinges that ye would. ¹⁸ But if yee be led of the spirit, yee are not vnder the Law. ¹⁹ Now the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are these, adulterie, fornication, uncleanness, lasciuiousnesse, ²⁰ Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, homicides, ²¹ Enuiyings, murders, drunkennesse, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I haue also tolde you in time past, that they which do such thinges shall not inherite the kingdom of God.

²² But the fruit of the spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, ²³ Meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no law. ²⁴ And they that are Christes, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and lustes. ²⁵ If wee liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit. ²⁶ Let vs not bee desirous of vaine glory, prouoking one another, enuyng one another.

6. BRETHREN, if a man bee overtaken in a fault: yee which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meeknesse, considering thy selfe least thou also be tempted. ² Bearc ye one anothers burthens, and so fulfill the Law of Christ. ³ For if a man thinke himselfe to be some thing, when he is nothing, he deceiueth himselfe. ⁴ But let euery man proue his owne worke, and then shall he haue reioycing in himselfe alone, and not in an other. ⁵ For euery man shall beare his owne burthen. ⁶ Let him that is taught in the word, communicate vnto him that teacheth, in all good things.

Christ. ⁸ Wherefore he sayth, When he ascended vp on hye, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue giftes vnto men.

⁹ (Now, in that he Ascended, what meaneth it, but that he had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?

¹⁰ He that descended, is euen the same also, that ascended vp, farre aboue all heauens, to fulfil all thinges.)

¹¹ He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophetes, and some Euangelistes, and some Pastours, and Teachers: ¹² That the Sainctes myght be gathered together, that the ministerie myght be vsed, and that the body of Christ might be edified. ¹³ Tyl we euery one (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) grow vp vnto a perfect man, after the measure of the age, of the fulnes of Christ. ¹⁴ That we hence forth be no more chyldren, wauering and caried about wyth euery wynde of doctrine, as comenly chanceth vnto men, and with craftines, wherby they laye in wayet to deceaue.

1. PAUL and Timotheus the seruantes of Iesus Christe, to all the Sainctes in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the Byeshops, and Deacons: ² Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ. ³ I thanke my God hauing you in perfect memorie.

⁴ (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnes) ⁵ Because of the fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the first day vnto now. ⁶ And am suerly certified of thys, that he which began a good worke in you, shal go forth with it vntill the day of Iesus Christ. ⁷ As it becometh me so to iudge of you all, because I beare in perfect remembrance: that both in my bandes, and also in my defence, and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my grace. ⁸ For God beareth me recorde, how greatly I longe after you all from the very heart rote in Iesus Christe.

⁹ And thys I pray, that your loue may increase, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement. ¹⁰ That ye may discernc thynges that differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and go forward without any let, vntill the day of Christ.

1. PAUL and Timothee the seruants of Iesus Christ: to al the sainctes in Christ Iesus that are at Philippi, vvith the Bishops and Deacons. ² Grace to you and peace from God our father, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

⁶ trusting this same thing, that he which hath begonne in you a good worke, vvil perfitt it vnto the day of Christ Iesus. ⁷ as it is reason for me, this to thinke for al you, for that I haue you in hart, and in my bandes, and in the defence, and the confirmation of the Gospel, al you to be partakers of my ioy. ⁸ For God is my vvitness, how I count you al in the bowels of Iesus Christ. ⁹ And this I pray, that your charitie may more and more abound in knowledge and in al vnderstanding:

¹⁰ that you may approue the better thynges, that you may be sincere and vvithout offence vnto the day of Christ.

¹¹ Filled wth the fruites of righteousnes, which come by Iesus Christe vnto the glorie and praise of God. ¹² I would ye vnderstode brethren, that the things which have happened vnto me, are touned to the great furthering of the Gospel. ¹³ So that my bandes in Christ, are famous throughout all the Iudgement hall, and in all other places. ¹⁴ Insomuche that many of the brethren in the Lord are bolded through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the worde. ¹⁵ Some there are which preach Christe of enue and stryfe, and some also of good wyl.

¹⁶ The one parte preacheth Christe of stryfe and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes. ¹⁷ The other parte of loue, knowing that I am set to defende the Gospel. ¹⁸ What then? So that Christ be preached all maner wayes, whether it be vnder a pretence, or syncrely: I therein ioye, yea, and wyl ioye. ¹⁹ For I knowe that this shal tourne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Sprite of Iesus Christe.

²⁰ As I hartely lcke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that wth all confidence, as all wayes in tymes past, euen so now Christe shal be magnified in my body, whether it be through lyfe, or els death. ²¹ For Christe is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

Notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth: Christ is preached, and I therein doe reioyce, yea, and will reioyce.

¹⁹ For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, and the supplye of the spirit of Iesus Christ, ²⁰ According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with all boldnes, as alwayes, so now also Christ shal be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death. ²¹ For to me to liue is Christ, and to die is gaine. ²² But if I liue in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shal chuse, I wote not. ²³ For I am in a strait betwixt two, hauing a desire to depart, and to bee with Christ, which is farre better. ²⁴ Neuertheless, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you. ²⁵ And hauing this confidence, I knowe that I shall abyde and continue with you all, for your furtherance and ioy of faith, ²⁶ That your reioycing may bee more abundant in Iesus Christ for me, by my comynge to you agayne.

²⁷ Only let your conversation be, as it becometh the Gospel of Christe: that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one Sprite, and in one mynde fighting all together through the fayth of the Gospel. ²⁸ And in nothing feare your adversaries which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of salvation, and that of God. ²⁹ For vnto you it is geuen for Christe, that not only ye should beleue on him, but also suffre for his sake: ³⁰ Having enen the same fyght, which ye sawe me haue, and now haue heard to be in me.

2. IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if there be any comfort of loue, if there be any fellowship of the Sprite, if there be any compassion and mercie: ² Fulfil my ioy, that ye be like mynded, hauing the selfe same loue, being of one accorde, and of one iudgement. ³ That nothyng be done through strife or vayne glorie, but that in meekenes of mynde euery man esteeme other better then him selfe. ⁴ And loke not euery man on his owne thynges, but euery man also on the thynges of other men. ⁵ Let the same mynde be in you that was in Christe Iesus. ⁶ Who being in the shape of God, thought it no robbery to be equal wyth God: ⁷ But he made hym selfe of no reputation, and toke on hym the shape of a seruant and was made lyke vnto men, ⁸ and was founde in appearance as a man. He humbled hym selfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

3. MOREOVER, my brethren reioyce in the Lord. It greueth me not to wryte the same thyngs to you: and for you it is a sure thing. ² Beware of dogges, beware of euil workers, beware of the concision. ³ For we are Circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the fleshe: ⁴ Though I haue wherof I might reioyce also in the fleshe. If any other man thinketh that he hath wherof he might trust in the fleshe: muche more I. ⁵ Circumcised the eyght day, of the kindred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrue of the Hebrues, by profession, a Pharisee. ⁶ And as concerning feruentnes, I persecuted the Church, and as touching the righteousness which is in the Lawe, I was vnbekable. ⁷ But the thinges that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake,

To wryte the same thinges vnto you, to me surely it is not tedious, and to you it is necessarie. ² See the dogges, see the euil workers, see the concision. ³ For we are the circumcision, which in spirit serue God: and we glorie in Christ Iesus, and not hauing confidence in the fleshe. ⁴ albeit I also haue confidence in the fleshe. 2. FOR your selues know, brethren, our entrance vnto you, that it vvas not vaine: ² but hauing suffered before and been abused vvith contumelies (as you know) at Philippi, vve had confidence in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God in much carefulnes. ³ For our exhortation vvas not of error, nor of wickednesse, nor in decoite: ⁴ but as vve were approued of God that the Gospel should be committed to vs, so vve speake: not as pleasing men, but God, vwho proueth our hartes. ⁵ For neither haue we been at any time in the vvord of adulation, as you know: nor in occasion of auarice, God is vvitness: ⁶ nor seeking glorie of men, neither of you, nor of others. Vvhereas vve might haue been a burden to you, as the Apostles of Christ: ⁷ but vve became children in the middles of you, as if a nurse should cherish her children: ⁸ so hauing a desire to you, vve woulde gladly deliuer vnto you not only the Gospel of God, but also our owne soules: because you are become most deere vnto vs.

⁹ For you are mindefull, brethren, of our labour and toyle, day and night vvorking, lest vve should charge any of you, vve preached among you the Gospel of God. ¹⁰ You are vvitnesses and God, how holily and iustly and vvithout blame, vve haue been to you that did beleue. ¹¹ as you know in vvhat manner we desiring to this. ⁴ For euen when we were wyth you, we foretold you that we should suffer tribulations, as also it is come to passe, and you know. ⁵ Therefore I also forbearing no longer, sent to know your faith: lest perhaps he that tempteth, hath tempted you, and our labour be made vaine. ⁶ But now Timothee coming vnto vs from you, and reporting to vs your faith and charitie, and that you haue a good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also you: ⁷ therefore we are comforted, brethren, in you, in al our necessitie and tribulation, by your faith, ⁸ because now we live, if you stand in our Lord.

⁹ For what thanks-giving can we render to God for you, in al ioy where- wyth we reioyce for you before our God, ¹⁰ night and day more abundantly praying that we may see your face, and may accomplish those things that want of your faith.

¹¹ And God him self and our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ direct our way to you. ¹² And our Lord multiplie you, and make your charitie abound one to an other, and towards all men: as we also in you, ¹³ to confirme your hartes without blame, in holinesse, before God and our Father, in the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with al his Saintes. Amen.

4. FOR the rest therefore, brethren, we desire and beseeche you in our Lord Iesus, that as you haue receiued of vs how you ought to vvalke, and to please God, as also you doe vvalke, that you abound more. ² For you knowe what precepts I haue giuen to you by our Lord Iesus. ³ For this is the wyl of God, your sanctification: that you abstaine from fornication, ⁴ that every one may know

⁹ For what thanks can we render to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee ioy for your sakes before our God, ¹⁰ Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? ¹¹ Now God himselfe and our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ direct our way vnto you. ¹² And the Lord make you to increase, and abound in loue one towards another, and towards all men, euen as we doe towards you: ¹³ To the end hee may stablish your hearts vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

4. FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and rehort you by the Lord Iesus, that as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to please God, so ye woulde abound more and more. ² For ye know what commandements wee gaue you, by the Lord Iesus. ³ For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, that ye should abstaine from fornication: ⁴ That every one of you should know how to possesse his

5. AND of the times and momentes, brethren, you neede not that vve wryte to you. ² For your selues knowe perfectly that the day of our Lord shal so come, as a theefe in the nyght. ³ For whhen they shal say, peace and socritie: then shal sodaine destruction come vpon them, as the paines to her that is with childe, and they shal not escape. ⁴ But you brethren are not in darknesse: that the same day may as a theefe ouertake you.

⁹ For God hath not appointed vs vnto vvrauth, but vnto the purchasynge of saluation by our Lord Iesus Christ, ¹⁰ vvho dyed for vs: that vvwhether vve wvatch, or sleepe, vve may lyue together vvith him. ¹¹ For the vvwhich cause comfort one another: and edifie one another, as also you doe.

¹² And vve beseeche you brethren, that you vvill knowe them that labour among you, and that gouerne you in our Lord, and admonish you: ¹³ that you haue them more abundantly in charitie for their vvorke. haue peace vvith them. ¹⁴ And vve beseeche you brethren, admonish the vvunquiet, comfort the vvweake-minded, beare vp the vvvncke, be patient to al. ¹⁵ Soe that none render euyl for euyl to any man: but alvvvays that vvwhich is good pursue towardes eche other, and towardes al. ¹⁶ Alvvvayes reioyce. ¹⁷ Pray vvithout intermission. ¹⁸ In al thynges geue thanks. for this is the vvill of God in Christ Iesus in al you. ¹⁹ The Spirit

5. BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I write vnto you. ² For your selues know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thiefe in the nyght. ³ For when they shall say, Peace and safetie: then sudden destruction cometh vpon them, as trouble vpon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. ⁴ But ye, brethren, are not in darknesse, that that day should ouertake you as a thiefe. ⁵ Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: wee are not of the nyght, nor of darknesse. ⁶ Therefore let vs not sleepe, as do others: but let vs watch and be sober. ⁷ For they that sleepe, sleepe in the nyght, and they that bee druncken, are druncken in the nyght. ⁸ But let vs who are of the day, be sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and for an helmet, the hope of saluation. ⁹ For God hath not appointed vs to vvrauth: but to obtayne saluation by our Lord Iesus Christ, ¹⁰ Who died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should lyue together vvith him. ¹¹ Wherefore, ¹² comfort your selues together, and edifie one another, euen as also ye doe.

¹² And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you: ¹³ And to catene them very highly in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace among your selues. ¹⁴ Now wee exhort you, brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comfort the feeble minded, support the weake, be patient toward all men. ¹⁵ See that none render euyl for euyl vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both among your selues and to all men.

inherit the promise. ¹³ For when God made promise to Abraham because he had no greater to swear by, he swore by himself. ¹⁴ Saying, Surely I will most abundantly bless thee and multiply thee above measure.

¹⁵ And so after that he had tarried patiently, he enjoyed the promise. ¹⁶ For men verily swear by him that is greater than themselves, and an oath to confirm the thing, is among them an end of all strife. ¹⁷ So God willing very abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise, the stableness of his counsel, he assured by an oath. ¹⁸ That by two immutable things, in which it is impossible that God should lie we might have strong consolation, which have fled to this, for to hold fast the hope that is set before us. ¹⁹ Which hope we have, as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and it entereth in, into the things which are within the vail. ²⁰ Whither the forerunner is for us entered in: I mean Jesus that is made an high Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7. FOR this Melchisedec was king of Salem, the high Priest of the most high God, and met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the king, and blessed him: ² To whom also Abraham gave tithes of all things, who first is by interpretation king of righteousness: after that, he is king of Salem, that is, king of peace: ³ Without father, without mother, without kin, and hath neither beginning of his days, nor yet end of his life: but is likened unto the Son of God, and continueth a Priest for ever. ⁴ Consider what a man this was, unto whom the Patriarch Abraham gave tithes of the spoils. ⁵ And verily they which are the children of Levi, which receive the office of the Priesthood, have a commandment to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people, that is to say, of their brethren, yea though they sprang out of the loins of Abraham. ⁶ But he patience shall inherit the promises.

¹³ For God promising to Abraham, because he had none greater by whom he might swear, he swore by himself. ¹⁴ saying, Unless blessing I shall bless thee, and multiplying shall multiply thee. ¹⁵ And so patiently enduring he obtained the promise. ¹⁶ For men swear by a greater than themselves: and the end of all their contention, for the confirmation, is an oath. ¹⁷ Wherein God meaning more abundantly to shew to the heirs of the promise the stability of his counsel, he interposed an oath: ¹⁸ that by two things unchangeable, whereby it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a most strong comfort. ¹⁹ who have fled to hold fast the hope proposed, ²⁰ which we have as an anchor of the soul, sure and firm, and going in into the inner parts of the veil. ²¹ where Jesus the precursor for us is entered, made a high priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedec.

7. FOR this Melchisedec, the king of Salem, Priest of the God most high, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the king, and blessed him: ² to whom also Abraham gave tithes of all: first in deeds by interpretation, the king of justice: and then also king of Salem, which is to say, king of peace, ³ without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but likened to the Son of God, continueth a priest for ever.

⁴ And behold how great this man is, to whom also Abraham the Patriarch gave tithes of the principal things. ⁵ And certes they of the Sonnes of Levi that take the Priesthood, have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law, that is to say, of their brethren: albeit themselves also issued out of the loins of Abraham. ⁶ but he whose

¹⁶ For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. ¹⁷ Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: ¹⁸ That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. ¹⁹ Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the vail. ²⁰ Whither the forerunner is for us entered; even Jesus, made an high Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7. FOR this Melchisedec King of Salem, Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him: ² To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace. ³ Without father, without mother, ⁴ without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life: but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a Priest continually. ⁵ Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. ⁶ And verily they that are of the Sonnes of Levi, who receive the office of the Priesthood, have a commandment to take Tithes of the people according to the Law, that is of their brethren, though they come out of the loynes of Abraham: ⁷ But hee ben fantasie: then should no place have been sought for the seconde.

¹ For in rebuking them he sayth, Behold the dayes wyl come sayth the Lord, when I shal make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda, a new Couenant: ² Not lyke the Couenant that I made with theyr fathers, at that tyme when I toke them by the handes, to lede them out of Egypt, for they continued not in my Couenant, and I regarded them not sayth the Lord. ¹⁰ For this is the Couenant that I wyl make with the house of Israel, after those dayes sayth the Lord, I wyl put my lawes in their myndes, and in their hearts I wyl wryte them, and I wyl be theyr God, and they shalbe my people.

¹² For I wyl be mercifull to their vnrighuousneses, and to theyr synnes, and I wyl remember their iniquities no more.

¹³ In that he sayth a newe Couenant, he hath abrogate the olde: Now that which is disanulled and waxed olde, is redy to vanyshe away.

9. THEN that first Couenant verely, had rites of religion ordeyned, and a wordly Sanctuarie. ² For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the Candlestick, and the Table, and the Shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the Holy places. ³ And with in the middle wayle, was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all. ⁴ Which had the golden senser, and the Arcke of the Couenant overlayde rounde about with golde, wherein the golden pot which had Manna, and Aarons rodde was, that had spronge, and the Tables of the Couenant. ⁵ And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the propitiatorie: of which thinges we wyl not now speake particularly.

⁶ When these thinges were thus ordeyned, should not certes a place of a second been sought. ⁸ For blaming them, he saith: Behold the daies shal come, saith our Lord: and I wil consummate vpon the house of Israel, and vpon the house of Iuda a newe Testament: ⁹ not according to the testament which I made to their fathers in the day that I toke their hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my testament: and I neglected them, saith our Lord. ¹⁰ For this is the testament which I wil dispose to the house of Israel after those daies, saith our Lord: Giuing my lawes into their minde, and in their hart wil I superscribe them: and I wil be their God, and they shall be my people: ¹¹ and euery one shal not teach his neyghbour, and euery one his bradher, saying, Knowe our Lord: because al shal knowe me from the lesser to the greater of them: ¹² because I wil be mercifull to their iniquities, and their synnes I wil not now remember.

¹³ And in saying a new, the former he hath made old. And that which groweth auuncit and waxeth old, is nigh to vtter decay.

9. THE former also in deede had iustificacions of seruite, and a secular sanctuarie. ² For the tabernacle was made, the first, wherein were, the candlestickes, and the table, and the proposition of loaves, which is called Holy. ³ But after the second vele, the tabernacle, which is called Sancta Sanctorum: ⁴ hauing a golden censar, and the arke of the testament couered about on euery part with gold, in the which was a golden pottle hauing Manna, and the rod of Aaron that had bloomed, and the tables of the testament, ⁵ and ouer it were the Cherubims of glorie overshadowing the propitiatorie. of which thinges it is not needefull to speake now particularly.

⁶ But these things being so ordered, in faultlesse, then should no place have bene sought for the second. ⁸ For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the dayes come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new Couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah. ⁹ Not according to the Couenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I tooke them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my Couenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. ¹⁰ For this is the Couenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will put my Lawes into their minde, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. ¹¹ And they shall not teach euery man his neyghbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. ¹² For I will be mercifull to their vnrighuousnes, and their synnes, and their iniquities will I remember no more. ¹³ In that he saith, A new Couenant, he hath made the first olde. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is redie to vanish away.

9. THEN verely the first Couenant had also ordinances of diuine Service, and a worldly Sanctuarie. ² For there was a Tabernacle made, the first, wherein was the Candlestick, and the Table, and the Shewbread, which is called the Sanctuarie. ³ And after the second vail, the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all: ⁴ Which had the golden Censar, and the Arke of the Couenant overlayde round about with gold, wherein was the Golden pot that had Manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the Tables of the Couenant. ⁵ And ouer it the Cherubims of glory shadowing the Mercyseat: of which we cannot now speake particularly.

the Priests went alwayes into the fyrst Tabernacle, and executed the rites. ⁷ But into the second, went the hye Priest alone, once every yere: not without bloude, which he offered for him selfe, and for the ignorancs of the people. ⁸ Wherby the holy Gost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all, was, not yet opened whyle as yet the fyrst Tabernacle was standyng.

⁹ Which Tabernacle was a figure for the tyme then present, wherin were offered giftes and sacrifices that could not make the minister holie, as pertayning to the conscience. ¹⁰ Which things were layed vpon vs in meates only and drinckes, and diuers washynges, and carnal rites, vntyl the tyme of reformation.

¹¹ But Christ being come an hye Priest of good thynges, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with handes that is, not of this manner buyldyng. ¹² Neither by the bloude of goates and calves: but by his owne bloude entred in ouce into the Holy place, and purchased eternal redemption for vs. ¹³ For yf the bloud of bulles and of goates and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vnclane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh: ¹⁴ How much more shal the bloude of Christ which through the eternal Sprit, offered hym selfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, for to serue the liuing God? ¹⁵ And for this cause is he the mediatur of the new Couenant, that through death which was for the redemption of those transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, myght receaue the promise of eternal enheritance.

¹⁶ For whosoer is a testament, there must also be the death of hym that maketh the testament. ¹⁷ For the testament taketh autoritie when men are dead: for it is yet of no value as long as he that made it, is a lyue. ¹⁸ For which cause also, bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should have had no more conscience of synnes? ⁵ But, in those sacrifices there mention made of synnes every yere.

¹³ For if the blood of goates and of oxen and the ashes of an heifer being sprinkled, sanctifieth the polluted to the cleansing of the flesh: ¹⁴ how much more hath the blood of Christ vho by the holy Ghost offered him self vnspotted vnto God, cleansed our conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God? ¹⁵ And therefore he is the mediatur of the new Testament: that death being a meane, vnto the redemption of these procurements which were vnder the former testament, they that are called may receiue the promise of eternal inheritance.

⁴ For it is impossible that the bloude of bulles, and goates should take away synnes. ⁵ Wherefore, when he cometh into the worlde, he sayth, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not have: but a body hast thou ordeyned me. ⁶ In burnt sacrifices and synne offerings thou hast no pleasure. ⁷ Then I sayd, Lo I am here (In the begynnyng of the booke it is written of me) that I should do thy wyl, O God. ⁸ Above, when he had sayd, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt sacrifices, and synne offerings thou wouldest not have, nether hast allowed (which yet are offered by the Lawe) ⁹ Then sayd he, Lo I am here to do thy wyl, O God: he taketh away the fyrst, to stablish the latter. ¹⁰ By the which wyl, we are sanctified, by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

worshippers once cleansed should have no conscience of synne any longer. ² but in them there is made a commemoration of synne every yere. ⁴ for it is impossible that wvith the bloud of oxen and goates synnes should be taken away.

⁵ Therefore coming into the worlde he saith: Howl and oblation thou wouldest not: but a body thou hast fitted to me: ⁶ Holocaustes and for synne did not please thee. ⁷ Then said I, Behold I come: in the head of the booke it is written of me: Thas I may doe thy wyl O God. ⁸ Saying before, Because hastes and oblations and holocaustes, and for synne thou wouldest not, neither did they please thee, wvich are offered according to the law, ⁹ then said I, Behold I come that I may doe thy wyl O God: he taketh away the first, that he may establish that that followeth. ¹⁰ In the wvich wyl, we are sanctified by the oblation of the body of Iesus Christ once.

the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sinnes? ² But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe made of sinnes every yeere. ⁴ For it is not possible that the blood of Bulls and of Goats, should take away sinnes.

⁵ Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: ⁶ In burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sinne thou hast had no pleasure: ⁷ Then said I, Lo, I come. (In the volume of the booke it is written of me) to doe thy will, O God. ⁸ Above when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offering for sinne thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by the Law: ⁹ Then said he, Lo, I come to doe thy will (O God): He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. ¹⁰ By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once for all. ¹¹ And every Priest standeth dayly ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sinnes. ¹² But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes for ever, sat downe on the right hand of God, ¹³ From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. ¹⁴ For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. ¹⁵ Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witness to vs: for after that he had said before, ¹⁶ This is the Covenant that I will make with them after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will put my Lawes into their hearts, and in their mindes will I write them: ¹⁷ And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more. ¹⁸ Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sinne.

hondes, and suffred with ioye the spoyling of your gooddes, knowing in your selues how that ye had in heauen a hotter, and an enduring substance.

²⁵ Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

²⁶ For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the wyl of God, ye myght receaue the promys. ²⁷ For yet a very litle while, and he that shal come will come, and wil not tary. ²⁸ Now the iust shal lyue by faith. but if any withdraw him selfe, my soule shal haue no pleasure in hym. ²⁹ We are not they which withdraw our selues vnto damnation, but beleue to the saluation of the soule.

11. FAYTH is that, which causeth those things to appeare in deed which are hoped for, and sheweth evidently the thinges which are not sene. ² For by it our elders were wel reported of. ³ Through faith we vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the worde of God, so that the thinges which we se, are not made of thinges which dyd appeare. ⁴ By faith Abel offered vnto God a more plenteous sacrifice then Cain: by which faith he obteyned wytnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his giftes: by which faith also he being dead, yet speaketh. ⁵ By faith was Enoch translated, that he shuld not see death: nether was he founde: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God:

⁶ But without faith it is vpossible to please hym: for he that cometh to God must beleue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seke hym. ⁷ By faith Noe being warned of God, of the thinges which were as yet not sene, moued with reuerence prepared the arcke to the sayuing of his housholde, through the which arcke, he condemned the worlde, and was made heire of the righteousness, which cometh by faith.

and the spoile of your owne goodes you tooke wvith ioy, knowing that you haue a better and a permanent substance. ²⁵ Do not therefore leese your confidence, wvich hath a great remuneration. ²⁶ For patience is necessarie for you: that doing the wvill of God, you may receiue the promise.

²⁷ For yet a litle and a very litle wvhile, he that is to come, wvill come, and wvill not slacke. ²⁸ and my iust lineth of faith, but if he wvithdraw him self, he shal not please my soule. ²⁹ But we are not the children of wvithdrawing vnto perdition: bat of faith to the vwinning of the soule.

11. AND faith is, the substance of things to be hoped for, the argument of things not appearing. ² For in this the old men obtained testimonie.

³ By faith, we vnderstand that the wvorldes were framed by the wvord of God: that of inuisible things visibie things might be made.

⁴ By faith, Abel offered a greater hoste to God then Cain: by wvich he obtained testimonie that he was iust, God giuing testimonie to his giftes, and by it, he being dead, yet speaketh. ⁵ By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and he was not found: because God translated him. for before his translation he had testimonie that he had pleased God. ⁶ But wvithout faith it is impossible to please God. For he that cometh to God, must beleue that he is, and is a rewarder to them that seeke him.

⁷ By faith, Noë hauing receiued an answer concerning those things which as yet were not seen, fearing, framed the arke for the sauing of his house, by the wvich he condemned the wvorld: and was instituted heire of the iustice wvich is by faith.

⁸ By faith, he that is called, Abraham,

11. NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the euidence of things not seen. ² For by it the Elders obtained a good report. ³ Through faith was vnderstand that the worldes were framed by the word of God, so that things which are sene were not made of things which doe appeare. ⁴ By faith Abel offered vnto God a more excellent sacrifice then Cain, by which he obtained witnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, yet speaketh. ⁵ By faith Enoch was translated, that hee should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. ⁶ But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that cometh to God, must beleue that hee is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seeke him.

obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he should afterward receive for inheritance: and he went out not knowing whether he should go. ⁹ By faith he abode in the land, that was promised him, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tabernacles, and with Isaac, and Jacob heaves with him of the same promise: ¹⁰ For he looked for a city having a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

¹¹ Through faith Sara also received strength to be with child, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful which had promised. ¹² And therefore sprang there of one, and of one which was dead, so many as the stars of the sky are in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable. ¹³ And they all dyed in faith, and received not the promises, but saw them a farre off, and beleaved them, and reckoned them with thanks, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. ¹⁴ For they thus say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a countrey.

¹⁵ If that they had bene mindful of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had lowre to have returned agayne: ¹⁶ But now they desire a better, that is a heavenly, wherefore God him selfe is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. ¹⁷ By faith Abraham offered up Isaac, when he was tempted, and he offered hym being his onely begotten sonne, which had received the promises. ¹⁸ (To whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.) ¹⁹ For he considered that God was able to raise it up even from death: from whence he received him also after a sort.

¹¹ By faith, Sara also her self being barren, received vertue in conceiving of seede, yea past the time of age: because she beleaved that he was faithful which had promised. ¹² For the which cause even of one (and him quite dead) there rose as the starres of heaven in multitude, and as the sand that is by the sea shore innumerable.

¹³ According to faith died all these, not having received the promises, but beholding them a farre off, and saluting them, and confessing that they are pilgrims and strangers vpon the earth: ¹⁴ for they that say these things, doe signifie that they seeke a countrey. ¹⁵ And in dede if they had ben mindful of the same from whence they came forth, they had time verely to returne. ¹⁶ but now they desire a better, that is to say, a heavenly. Therefore God is not confounded to be called their God. for he hath prepared them a cite.

not? ¹⁵ But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

¹⁶ Furthermore, wee haue had fathers of our flesh, which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerences: shall we not much rather bee in subiection vnto the Father of Spirits, and liue? ¹⁷ For they verily for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might bee partakers of his holinesse. ¹⁸ Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness, vnto them which are exercised thereby. ¹⁹ Wherefore lift vp the handes which hang downe, and the feeble knees. ²⁰ And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather bee healed.

²⁵ For yee are not come vnto the Mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor vnto blacknesse, and darcknesse, and tempest, ²⁶ And the sound of a Trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which voyce they that heard, entreated that the word should not bee spoken to them any more. ²⁷ For they could not iudare that which was commanded: And if so much as a beaste touch the Mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart. ²⁸ And so terrible was the sight, that Moses saide, I exceedingly feare, and quake.

²⁹ But yee are come vnto mount Zion,

18 Wee haue an Altar whereof they haue
 no right to eate, which serue the Tabernacle. 19 For the bodies of those beastes, whose blood is brought into the Sanctuary
 by the high Priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe. 20 Wherefore Iesus also, that hee might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate. 21 Let vs goe fourth therefore unto him without the campe, bearing his reproch. 22 For here haue we no continuing citie, but we seeke one to come. 23 By him therefore let vs offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lippes, giving thanks to his Name. 24 But to doe good, and to communicate forget not, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the rule ouer you, and submit your selues : for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue account, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe : for that is vn-profitable for you. 18 Pray for vs : for we trust we haue a good conscience in all thinges, willing to liue honestly. 19 But I beseech you the rather to doe this, that I may be restored to you the sooner. 20 Now the God of peace, that brought againe from the dead our Lord Iesus, that great Shepherd of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Covenant, 21 Make you perfect in euery good worke to doe his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Iesus

The grasse wythereth, and the flower falleth away. ²⁵ But the worde of the Lord endureth euer, and this is the worde which by the Gospel is preached among you.

2. VVHEREFORE, laye asyde all maliciousnes and all gyle, and dissimulation, and enuie, and all lyehtyng: ² And as newe borne babes desire the syncre mylke of the worde, that ye maye growe therby. ³ If so be that ye haue tasted how good the Lord is. ⁴ To whome ye come as vnto a luyng stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God and pretious. ⁵ And ye as liuing stones, be made a spiritual house, an holy Priesthode, for to offer vp spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

⁶ Wherefore it is containyd in the Scripture, Beholde I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, electe and precious: and he that beleueth on him, shal not be ashamed. ⁷ Vnto you therefore which beleue, he is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the buylders refused, the same is made the head stone in the corner. ⁸ And a stone to stumple at, and a rocke of offence to them which stumple at the worde, disobedient, vnto the which thing they were also ordeyned. ⁹ But ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthode, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye shoulde shewe the vertues of him that called you out of darknes into his maruelous light. ¹⁰ Which in tyme past were not a people, yet are now the people of God: which in tyme past were not vnder mercy, but now haue obtayned mercy.

²⁴ For all flesh is as grasse: and all the glorie thereof as the floure of grasse. the grasse is withered, and the floure thereof is fallen away. ²⁵ But the vword of our Lord remaineth for euer, and this is the vword that is euangelized among you.

2. LAYING away therefore all malice, and all guile, and simulations, and enuies, and all detractions, ² as infants even now borne, reasonable, milke without guile desire ye, that in it you may grow vnto saluation. ³ If yet you haue tasted that our Lord is sweete. ⁴ Vnto vvhom approaching, a liuing stone, of men in dede reprobated, but of God elect and made honorable: ⁵ he ye also your selues superedified as it were liuing stones, spiritual houses, a holy priesthod, to offer spiritual hostes, acceptable to God by Iesus Christ. ⁶ For the vvhich cause the Scripture containeth, Behold I put in Sion a principall corner stone elect, pretious. and he that shal beleue in him, shal not be confounded. ⁷ To you therefore that beleue, honour: but to them that beleue not, the stone which the builders reiected, the same is made into the head of the corner: ⁸ and a stone of offense, and a rocke of scandal, to them that stumple at the vword, neither doc beleue wherin also they are put. ⁹ But you are an elect generation, a kingly priesthod, a holy nation, a people of purchase: that you may declare his vertues vvhich from darknesse hath called you into his maruelous light. ¹⁰ Vvhich sometime not a people: but now the people of God. 2. WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrites, and enuies, and euill speakings, ² As new borne babes desire the sincere milke of the word, that ye may grow thereby. ³ If so be ye haue tasted that the Lord is gracious. ⁴ To whom comming as vnto a liuing Stone disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ⁵ Ye also as lively stones, are built vp a spirituall house, an holy Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifice, acceptable to God by Iesus Christ. ⁶ Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect, precious, and hee that beleueth on him, shall not bee confounded.

⁷ Vnto you therefore which beleue, hee is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, ⁸ And a Stone of stumbling, and a blocke of offence, even to them which stumple at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

GENEVA—1557.

I sterc vp, and warne your pure myades, ²To call to remembrance the wordes, which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandment of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

³ This fyrst vnderstande, that there shal come in the last dayes, mockers, which wyl walke after their lustes, ⁴ And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for synce the fathers died, all thinges continue in the same estate wher in they were at the beginning. ⁵ For this they knowe not (and that willingly) how that the heauens a great whyle ago were, by the worde of God, and the earth that was in the water appeared vp out of the water, ⁶ Wherefore the world that then was, perished, overflowed with the water.

¹⁰ And the day of the Lord wyl come as a thiefe in the night, in the which day, the heauens shal passe away with a noyse, and the elementes shal melt with heate, and the earth with the workes, that are therein shal burne. ¹¹ Seing therefore all these thinges muste be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlynnes? ¹² Loking for, and hastyng vnto the comming in the day of God, in which the heauens shal be dissolued with fyre, and the elementes shal melt with heat. ¹³ But, we loke for new heuens, and a newe earth, according to his promys, wherin dwelleth righte-ousnes.

by admonition your sincere minde: ² that you may be mindefull of those wordes which I told you before from the holy Prophetes, and of your Apostles, of the preceptes of our Lord and Saviour. ³ Knowving this first, that in the last daies shal come mockers in deceit, vvalking according to their owne concupiscences, ⁴ saying, Vwhere is his promise or his comming? For since the time that the fathers slept, al thinges do so perseuer from the beginning of creature. ⁵ for they are vvilfully ignorant of this, that the heauens were before, and the earth, out of vwater, and through vwater, consisting by the vvord of God: ⁶ by the vvlich, that vvorld then, being ouerflowed vvith vwater perished.

vp your pure mindes by way of remembrance: ² That ye may be mindfull of the words which were spoken before by the holy Prophets, and of the Commandment of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour: ³ Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their owne lusts, ⁴ And saying, Where is the promise of his comming? For since the Fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. ⁵ For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heauens were of old, and the earth ⁶ standing out of the water, and in the water, ⁷ Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. ⁸ But the heauens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved vnto fire against the day of Iudgement, and perdition of vngodly men.

⁹ But (beloued) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day. ¹⁰ The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is long-suffering to vs-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. ¹¹ But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a great noyse, and the Elements shal melt with feruent heat, the earth also and the workes that are therein shall be burnt vp. ¹² Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conuersation, and godlinesse, ¹³ Looking for and hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, wherein the heauens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the Elements shall melt with feruent heat? ¹⁴ Nevertheless we, according to his promise, looke for new heuens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the Throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia. 8 And a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God all yee his seruants, and yee that feare him, both small and great.

9 And I heard as it were the voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of mightie thundrings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. 7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and geue honour to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready. 8 And to her was granted, that she should bee arrayed in fine linnen, cleane and white: for the fine linnen is the righteousness of Saints. 9 And he saith vnto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called vnto the marriage supper of the Lambe. And he saith vnto mee, these are the true sayings of God. 10 And I fell at his feete to worship him: And he said vnto me, See thou doe it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren, that haue the testimony of Iesus, is the Spirit of prophecie.

11 And I saw heauen opened, and behold a white horse, and hee that sate vpon him was called faithfull and true, and in righteousness he doeth iudge and make warre.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many Crownes, and hee had a Name written, that no man knew but he himselfe. 13 And hee was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood, and his Name is called, The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heauen followed him vpon white horses, clothed in fine linnen, white and cleane. 15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharpe sword, that with it hee should smite the nations: and he shal rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepresse of the phesie of this booke.

8 And I Iohn vvhich haue heard, and sene these thinges. And after I had heard and sene, I fel downe to adore before the feete of the Angel vvhich shewed me these thinges: 9 and he said to me, See thou doe not, for I am thy fellowe-servant, and of thy brethren the prophetes, and of them that keepe the vvordes of this booke.
 Adore God. 10 And he saith to me, Seale not the vvordes of the prophesie of this booke. for the tyme is neere. 11 He that hurteth, let him hurt yet: and he that is in filth, let him be filthie yet: and he that is iust, let him be iustified yet: and let the holy be sanctified yet. 12 Behold I come quickly, and my revvard is vvith me, to render to euery man according to his vvorkes. 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. 14 Blessed are they that vvash their stokes: that their povver may be in the tree of life, and they may enter by the gates into the citie. 15 Vvithout are dogges and sorcerers, and the vvichat, and murderers, and senners of Idola, and euery
 one that loueth and maketh a lie.

16 I Iasua haue sent mine Angel, to tes-tifie to you these thinges in the Churches.
 I am the roote and stocke of Dauid, the bright and morning starre. 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And he that thirsteth, let him come: and he that vvill, let him take the vvater of life gratis.

18 For I testifie to euery one hearing the vvordes of the prophesie of this booke,
 If any man shal adde to these thinges,
 God shal adde vpon him the plagues vvritten in this booke. 19 And if any man shal diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie: God shal take avay

 thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant; and of thy brethren the Prophetes, and of them which keepe the sayings of this booke: worship God. 10 And he saith vnto mee, Seale not the sayings of the prophesie of this booke: for the tyme is at hand.

11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and hee that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. 12 And behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.
 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. 14 Bleased are they that do his commandements, that they may haue right to the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the citie. 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth and maketh a lie.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to tes-tifie vnto you these things in the Churches.
 I am the roote and the offspring of Dauid,
 and the bright and morning starre. 17
 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come.
 And let him that heareth, say, Come.
 And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever wil, let him take the water of life freely. 18 For I testifie vnto euery man that heareth the words of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shal adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke. 19 And if any man shall take
